This privacy policy applies to the services of MB Optics BV. By using our website, you acknowledge and accept our privacy policy.

MB Optics BV respects the privacy of all visitors/users of its website and ensures that all personal information will be handled confidentially. It is our responsibility to protect your privacy.

Through our website we do not collect any personal information by using cookies, nor any data is being stored. Only when you contact us by using the contact form, we will store the supplied information. When you send us e-mails or other messages, we may retain those communications. Sometimes we will request additional information if relevant to your inquiry. These data are stored securely. MB Optics BV does not sell or share your data with third parties. In some cases, your data may be processed internally, but only by employees who are bounded by confidentiality agreements.

If you have any questions about these Terms of Use or our Privacy Policy, please feel free to contact us.
